

IQP Skin Conference

IQ Pathology is pleased to invite you to join us at the InterContinental Sanctuary Cove Resort on Saturday 10th August 2024.

Theory and surgical skills will be the focus of the workshop (all materials and instruments will be provided for the day). This is an invaluable opportunity to attend a workshop that provides you direct access to plastic surgeons, dermatologists, and skin histopathologists.

We will be offering post event drinks and canapés for those who wish to join us. Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea will be provided.

Please note - this is an invitation only event numbers are very limited so please RSVP as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.
