Diploma of Business (International Hotel and Resort Management)

The Diploma of Business (International Hotel and Resort Management) is one year in duration for a full-time student, or two years and 6 months duration for a part-time student. Each year consists of four Study Periods, also known as Terms.

Core subject - a compulsory subject that you must complete

Non-award subject - a non-graded subject with compulsory attendance (taken in 1st Study Period)

Pre-requisite subject - a subject you must complete before undertaking another subject

This course comprises of 10 subjects that you are required to complete: 10 core subjects and 1 non-award subject (CAE101). The course contains one subject level - Level 100- guiding you from foundational through to more complex subjects.

- Level 100: 10 core subjects.

RPL- Should you have any Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) credits that make you eligible for exemptions, please contact your Program Director to discuss further.

How to read the below Study Pattern (as a full-time student):
10 subjects per year make up a full-time study load, following a 4 subjects-4 subjects-1 subject-1 subject pattern across the year's four Study Periods (Terms). As an example: Following the below pattern, the subjects in your first year would be:
1st Study Period: BUS106BM, BUS107BM, HTL103BM and HTL104BM You should also take non-award subject CAE101
2nd Study Period: HOS103BM, BUS108BM, HTL105BM and HOS102BM
3rd Study Period: IPA101BM (1 subject) 4th Study Period: IPB101BM (1 subject)
Studying Part-Time? You would still follow the below sequence from top to bottom, but with fewer subjects per Study Period.
