Privacy

28. Under the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth), the Promoter must notify Participants of certain matters when it collects personal information about them including how it plans to use or disclose it. If a Participant chooses to enter or take part in the Competition, the Participant may be required to provide the Promoter with personal information about themselves such as the Participant's name, Facebook account and/or Instagram name.
29. The Promoter will collect, use and disclose the personal information which the Participant has provided the purpose of adding the Participant's details to the Centre's database.
30. The Promoter will collect, use and disclose the personal information which the Participant has provided for the purpose of carrying out the Competition (in particular and in general for notification and promotion of Prizes).
31. By entering the Competition, the Participant consents to the collection, use and disclosure of his or her personal information in the manner outlined in these Terms and Conditions.
32. If a Participant would prefer that the Promoter does not use or disclose the Participant's personal information in the way outlined in these Terms and Conditions and/or retain their personal information for the purposes described herein, the Participant should contact the Promoter.
33. A Participant has the right to access, in most circumstances, personal information which the Promoter holds about the Participant. A Participant may contact the Promoter to ask for access to the Participant's personal information, or if the Participant has a complaint concerning a Participant's information privacy. The Promoter may deny the participant's request for access in some circumstances. If the Promoter does this, it will tell the Participant why.
34. The Promoter's Privacy Policy contains further information on its processes in relation to access to and correction of personal information, about how a Participant may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how the Promoter will deal with such a complaint. The Promoter's Privacy Policy is available at the Centre's website.
35. If a Participant considers that any personal information that the Promoter holds about the Participant is inaccurate or if at any time the Participant's details change, the Participant may contact the Promoter and the Promoter will take reasonable steps to ensure that such personal information is corrected. The Promoter will take reasonable steps to keep personal information secure from misuse, interference, loss or unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
